Koehler Paper implements an overseas freight surcharge

Oberkirch, 20.09.2021 – The ongoing pandemic situation in many countries around the world has led to container shortages, disruption of supply chains and an exorbitant increase in container freight costs. In some cases container costs raise up to 10 times higher.

So far, Koehler has been able to supply its customers reliably and with only a few minor delays. We are working hard to ensure a reliable, complete and timely supply.

To compensate the extraordinary costs, we are now forced to impose a freight surcharge on all container shipments with immediate effect as a force majeure. This is a temporary measure and affects all Koehler paper divisions.

Your contact person at Koehler will get in touch with you to clarify further details.
