Koehler Paper to increase thermal paper prices in LatAm up to 10% for new orders

Oberkirch/Germany, 08.03.2021 – Koehler Paper Group, leading manufacturer of thermal paper, is increasing prices in Latin America for thermal paper by up to 10% for all new orders, effective immediately.

This increase is essential in order to offset the significant rise in raw material and logistic costs.

Customers will be contacted directly by the Koehler sales team.

More about the Koehler Group

The Koehler Group was founded in 1807 and has been family-run to this day. The Group's core area of business is the development and production of high-quality, specialty paper, including thermal paper, playing card board, coasters, fine paper, carbonless paper, recycled paper, decor paper, wood pulp board, sublimation paper, and, since 2019, innovative flexible specialty paper for the packaging industry, too. In Germany, the Koehler Group, with its more than 2,000 employees, has five production sites, as well as three more in the USA. The Group operates on an international level, with an export ratio of 70% in 2019 and annual revenue of €900 million.

As an energy-intensive enterprise, Koehler invests in renewable energy projects such as wind energy, hydroelectric power and biomass. The Koehler Group has committed itself to producing more power from renewable sources than is needed for paper production by 2030.
