Koehler Paper to Increase Prices for Fine Paper and Carbonless Paper by 7% for Deliveries from August 15, 2024

Oberkirch, Germany, 06/28/2024 – Koehler Paper, part of the Koehler Group, is announcing a price increase for FineTech Paper and reacto[®] Carbonless Paper by 7% for deliveries from August 15, 2024.

Continued rising prices for raw materials, above all for pulp, make this price correction necessary in order to remain a reliable supplier of high-quality fine paper and carbonless paper in the future.

Koehler's customers will be contacted directly by the sales team.

More about the Koehler Group

The Koehler Group was founded in 1807 and has been family-run to this day. The Group's core area of business is the development and production of high-quality, specialty paper, including thermal paper, playing card board, drink coasters, fine paper, carbonless paper, recycled paper, decor paper, wood pulp board, sublimation paper, and, since 2019, innovative specialty paper for the packaging industry, too. In Germany, the Koehler Group, with its around 2,500 employees, has five production sites, as well as three more in the USA. The Group operates on an international level, with an export ratio of more about 67% in 2022 and annual revenue of 1.3 billion euro.

As an energy-intensive enterprise, Koehler invests with its unit Koehler Renewable Energy in renewable energy projects such as wind energy, hydroelectric power, photovoltaics, and biomass. The Koehler Group has committed itself to producing more energy from renewable sources than is needed for paper production by 2030.

With the business unit Koehler Innovative Solutions, Koehler collaborates with start-ups to promote innovations in the core business areas of paper and renewable energy.
