Koehler Paper to increase ColorTech Paper Prices by up to 11%

Oberkirch/Greiz, Germany, 10/25/2022 - Koehler Paper, part of the Koehler Group, will increase its prices for ColorTech Paper globally by up to 11% for shipments from December 1st, 2022 onwards.

Reasons for the increase are continuously rising costs for lignite, raw materials, auxiliary materials and logistics.

With its ColorTech Paper product range, Koehler offers a wide range of recycled paper suitable for a wide variety of applications, from craft paper to fine ecological packaging. Awarded the "Blue Angel" eco-label, this paper made from 100% secondary fibers are especially impressive for their natural feel and intensive colors.

Customers will be contacted directly by the Koehler sales team.

About the Koehler Group

The Koehler Group was founded in 1807 and has been family-run from that moment to the present day. The group's core business activity lies in the development and production of high-quality specialty paper. This includes—among others—thermal paper, playing card board, drinks coasters, fine paper, carbonless paper, recycled paper, decor paper, wood pulp board, sublimation papers, and also innovative specialty papers for the packaging industry since 2019. In Germany, the Koehler Group employs around 2,500 people across five production sites, with three additional sites in the USA. The group operates internationally, with an export share of 70% in 2021, and brings in an annual turnover of around 1 billion euros.

As an energy-intensive company, Koehler invests in renewable energy projects such as wind energy, hydropower, photovoltaics, and biomass with its Koehler Renewable Energy business unit. The Koehler Group has set a goal of producing more energy from renewable sources by 2030 than is required for its paper production operations.

In addition, with its Koehler Innovative Solutions business unit, Koehler is dedicated to developing new business areas outside of special paper production and energy production.
