Koehler Paper to increase prices for flexible packaging paper up to 15%

Oberkirch, Germany, 05/19/2021 – Due to ongoing significant cost increases for raw materials and logistics during Q2 Koehler Paper, manufacturer of flexible packaging paper, is increasing its prices for deliveries up to 15% from July 1st 2021 onwards.

The NexFlex® product range includes a wide spectrum of flexible packaging paper. These include standard coated and uncoated paper products used in composites for pouches, sachets and other applications. The strategic objective is the production of barrier paper that will replace plastic in packaging where this is possible and reasonable.

All customers will be contacted directly by the Koehler sales team.

More about the Koehler Group

The Koehler Group was founded in 1807 and has been family-run to this day. The Group's core area of business is the development and production of high-quality, specialty paper, including thermal paper, playing card board, drink coasters, fine paper, carbonless paper, recycled paper, decor paper, wood pulp board, sublimation paper, and, since 2019, innovative specialty paper for the packaging industry, too. In Germany, the Koehler Group, with its more than 2,000 employees, has five production sites, as well as three more in the USA. The Group operates on an international level, with an export ratio of 70% in 2020 and annual revenue of €770 million.

As an energy-intensive enterprise, Koehler invests in renewable energy projects such as wind energy, hydroelectric power and biomass. The Koehler Group has committed itself to producing more power from renewable sources than is needed for paper production by 2030.
